80 años del fútbol Chileno (Spanish Edition) Danilo Díaz

El desafío ha sido elegir a los 125 futbolistas más destacados que hayan pisado los pastos chilenos en estas ocho décadas de historia. Un juicio injusto, lo sabemos, porque desde 1933 hasta hoy los tiempos no son comparables. Pero en este deporte la injusticia es también parte del juego y, si ésta no existiera, tal vez el fútbol no nos gustaría tanto como nos gusta.

Provisto de un trabajo de investigación y reflexión notables, Danilo Díaz presenta, además de jugadores, más de 40 anécdotas personales ocurridas en diversas épocas y estadios del país, junto con adentrarse, con la frialdad de los datos duros, en la discusión acerca de cuál ha sido el mejor equipo de la historia.

El autor tampoco elude otro tema derivado de su elección: dónde ubicar a tantas figuras nacionales que hoy triunfan en Europa pero que quedaron fuera de este recuento por haber partido, quizás, demasiado pronto de nuestras canchas. Un libro intenso, erudito y apasionado que invita al lector a hacer su propia lista y alienta un debate que no termina.
