Nella seconda parte del libro, invece, don Sergio ricorda alcune figure esemplari di religiosi, talvolta con rispetto affettuoso, sempre con stima e considerazione per le cariche che hanno ricoperto, le opere che hanno scritto, insieme a tanti, piccoli dettagli, che li umanizzano e aiutano anche chi non li abbia conosciuti a visualizzarli: il grande mantello di don Mariano Filippini, don Luigi Pomponi, al quale l'Autore soleva servir messa quand'era un ragazzino, e che la malattia rese poi incapace di muoversi... e poi don Ferdinando Merli, il “prete col fez” assassinato nel 1944, o don Guerriero Silvestri, noto per la sua “berretta a tre corni”...

Una piccola galleria che serve a illustrarci la visione della vita di don Sergio Andreoli, e la necessità della coerenza con questa visione, per essere capaci di camminare al passo con questi tempi, certo non facili, ma con i quali è necessario imparare a stare al passo, perfino con i blog.

Saranno anche tempi di deviazioni e smarrimenti ma, forse, non tutto è da buttare.
