Los Inquisidores de Granada: Las Guerras del Libro Vol. 1 (Spanish Edition) Gabriel Sánchez Ogáyar

Siete años después de la firma de las capitulaciones de Santa Fe, cristianos nuevos y viejos, judíos conversos, moriscos y musulmanes conviven en una tensa paz que la aparición del Tribunal del Santo Oficio convertirá en hoguera de conjuras, traiciones, miedos, odios y venganzas. La orden dada por el arzobispo Cisneros y el inquisidor Diego Rodríguez Luzero de incautar y quemar todos los libros que en poder de la población musulmana sean considerados peligrosos para la fe y la moral cristianas detonará una larga cadena de acontecimientos imprevisibles. El joven estudioso Amín Hamza, recién nombrado cadí de Granada, deberá enfrentar un sinfín de peligros para recuperar y proteger un Corán de extraordinario valor, codiciado por todas las partes y que se encuentra entre los libros expurgados de la Madraza. En sus aventuras contará con la ayuda del amor de su infancia, la arrojada y enigmática Sara, y la de su anciano y sabio maestro Shakir Ben Amara. Pero también hallará nuevos aliados y amigos, entre los que figuran dos de los principales cristianos de la villa, y enconados enemigos, como la acaudalada familia morisca de los Benjumea de Loja. De por medio: amores traicionados, falsas acusaciones, renegados de los dioses y los hombres, alzamientos en armas, espionaje, chantaje, asesinato, tortura y el comienzo de una genealogía bastarda que habrá de ser determinante en el futuro. Entre toda esta acumulación de grandes esperanzas y funestas ambiciones, ¿podrá Amín Hamza detener las incipientes Guerras del Libro?
