Stelle Nere (Italian Edition) Valentina Picco

Questa storia ha il calore del sole e il colore rosso della terra che ricopre la savana. Porta con se un po' della drammaticità e dell'intensità di un paese dove ribollono statiche contraddizioni e improvvisi cambiamenti. Izuba e Makena sono due donne coraggiose che vivono in un mondo di uomini. Lavorano come medico e infermiera all'ospedale St. Ann in Uganda. Cecilia proviene da un'altra cultura, insegue una chimera amorosa e scopra grazie a loro la potenza inespressa della sua vita. Un romanzo corale, un alternarsi vivace di personalità ed una tavolozza colorata di paesaggi, da scoprire con gli occhi dei personaggi che intrecciano i loro cammini a quelli delle protagoniste. Un proverbio africano recita: "educare una donna significa educare un intero villaggio", Valentina Picco, alla sua prima opera narrativa, racconta di un'Africa in bilico tra violenza e speranza, entrando nell'intimo dei pensieri dei suoi personaggi con uno stile leggero ma efficace, coinvolgente e a volte ironico.
