Basta cerrar los ojos. Antología personal (Spanish Edition) Darío Jaramillo

A semejanza de una hebra -fina, resistente, luminosa- cada uno de los poemas que forman este libro va enrollándose con natural sabiduría en la rueda del alma que los ha convocado. Y es que la obra poética de Darío Jaramillo Agudelo eligió, a lo largo de los años, componerse a través de una muy personal notación. Se trata, casi siempre, de un canto en voz baja, próximo a esa música callada que sólo puede escucharse en la quietud, en los arenales de la soledad, mediante “la euforia santa del silencio”. Se trata de una voz que -- limpia de todo aderezo, de todo artificio--fluye con la necesaria claridad con que han de decirse las cosas más hondas. Una exigencia que no por serlo es menos generosa. Vamos entonces a percibir que Basta cerrar los ojos para oír lo que no sabíamos que sabíamos. Y que Basta cerrar los ojos para empezar a verlo. La poesía de Darío Jaramillo Agudelo se ofrece como una invitación para transitar con ella por los comunes rumbos de la experiencia humana: la anhelante espera del ser amado -la celebración de esa plenitud y la constatación de su pérdida-, el azoro ante la más poderosa existencia de los gatos, las piedras y los árboles, la nitidez con que esto que llamamos la vida se presenta de pronto, por las noches, cuando las aguas del sueño nos transportan hacia esa otra orilla donde es posible ser todos y ninguno. “Algo por ahí quiere ser luz”, vislumbra la voz que se decanta en estos poemas tan cuidadosamente escogidos por su autor. Nostalgia incesante y memoria recobrada; dolor y gozo de saberse mortal y eterno como la flor transcrita y ardiente sobre la página.
