Bicycle Rendezvous: Part One: East Of The River Randy Cragin

Dark Fantasy Chip is about to face several changes in his life. After buying a new bicycle he begins to renew a fading friendship with Johnny. Together they are about to draw closer to a dark secret about the town they live in as well as one another. Chip's just beginning to discover things about himself, his family and Johnny, who starts out by telling him that he's gay. If he can hold it together long enough while his mom fades away and things get strange he might just have to discover what his father hasn't been telling him for the past six years.
