La épica historia de Kublai Khan, nieto de Gengis

Best seller internacional Nº 1

KUBLAI KHAN

Un guerrero que llegaría a gobernar una quinta parte del mundo por medio de la fuerza y la sabiduría.

Un erudito que conquistó un imperio más grande que el de Alejandro Magno.

Un hombre que traicionó a su hermano para proteger una nación.

Conquistador narra la historia de Kublai Khan, nieto de Gengis, desde que era un sabio erudito hasta que se convirtió en uno de los guerreros más poderosos de la historia. Un hombre extraordinario que merece ser recordado junto a Julio César, Alejandro Magno y Napoleón como uno de los mayores líderes que el mundo haya conocido jamás.

Con un imperio que hacía parecer pequeño el territorio conquistado por el poderoso Gengis Khan, aquella debería haber sido una época dorada para la vasta nación mongola. Kublai soñaba con un imperio que se extendiera de mar a mar pero, para construirlo, primero tuvo que aprender el arte de la guerra y llevar a sus guerreros hasta los confines del mundo conocido. Y cuando sus fuerzas se agotaron, tras ser herido, debió enfrentarse a sus propios hermanos en una sangrienta guerra civil.

«Nadie comprende como Iggulden las tácticas militares y la ambición del pueblo mongol, ni las describe mejor».
