Bajo el imperio de las ideas morales (Spanish Edition) Mariano Grondona

En este libro, el autor restituye a las palabras "moral" y "ética"

#palabras que el uso degrada o la exclusión vuelve demasiado abstractas#

una significación plena. Para ello evoca y explica una línea de pensamiento que va de Aristóteles a Heidegger sin pasar por alto la influencia insoslayable del idealismo y el pragmatismo anglosajones. El dilema y los conflictos que plantea la moral han permitido, más que otros, el desarrollo de ciertas culturas; la ausencia de preocupación moral, como contrapartida, ayuda a explicar la debilidad y el escaso desarrollo de otras.

A partir de premisas certeras y válidas, Mariano Grondona llega a conclusiones de una sensatez esclarecedora, que nos ayudan a pensar ahora y siempre, entre otras cosas, nuestra condición de latinoamericanos y argentinos dentro de un contexto alejado de las habituales quejas y sospechas.
