La isla de las tribus perdidas: La incógnita del mar latinoamericano (Spanish Edition)

Ignacio Padilla

La isla de las tribus perdidas: La incógnita del mar latinoamericano (Spanish Edition) Ignacio Padilla «Un mundo abrumado por su propia naturaleza, visto a través de las metáforas del agua, surge ante nosotros en este ensayo deslumbrante que recorre la tradición literaria de todo un continente», así justificaba su fallo el jurado del III Premio Iberoamericano de Ensayo Debate-Casa de América. En efecto, La isla de las tribus perdidas es una elegante narración que sigue la estela de Ulises y retoma los motivos clásicos del naufragio, la tempestad, el barco o la isla, para contar cómo Latinoamérica se convierte sin quererlo en el reverso de Occidente. Una bella inmersión en las fuentes literarias americanas donde Gabriel García Márquez, Julio Cortázar, Jorge Luis Borges, Carlos Fuentes, Juan Carlos Onetti o Alejo Carpentier son las aguas en que se refleja la relación conflictiva de un continente con el mar, pues tanto le duele el mar a América Latina que decidió vivir de espaldas a él.
