

Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture)

Craig D. Townsend

Download now

Click here if your download doesn't start automatically

Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture)

Craig D. Townsend

Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) Craig D. Townsend

On a September afternoon in 1853, three African American men from St. Philip's Church walked into the Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of New York and took their seats among five hundred wealthy and powerful white church leaders. Ultimately, and with great reluctance, the Convention had acceded to the men's request: official recognition for St. Philip's, the first African American Episcopal church in New York City. In Faith in Their Own Color, Craig D. Townsend tells the remarkable story of St. Philip's and its struggle to create an autonomous and independent church. His work unearths a forgotten chapter in the history of New York City and African Americans and sheds new light on the ways religious faith can both reinforce and overcome racial boundaries.

Founded in 1809, St. Philip's had endured a fire; a riot by anti-abolitionists that nearly destroyed the church; and more than forty years of discrimination by the Episcopalian hierarchy. In contrast to the majority of African Americans, who were flocking to evangelical denominations, the congregation of St. Philip's sought to define itself within an overwhelmingly white hierarchical structure. Their efforts reflected the tension between their desire for self-determination, on the one hand, and acceptance by a white denomination, on the other.

The history of St. Philip's Church also illustrates the racism and extraordinary difficulties African Americans confronted in antebellum New York City, where full abolition did not occur until 1827. Townsend describes the constant and complex negotiation of the divide between black and white New Yorkers. He also recounts the fascinating stories of historically overlooked individuals who built and fought for St. Philip's, including Rev. Peter Williams, the second African American ordained in the Episcopal Church; Dr. James McCune Smith, the first African American to earn an M.D.; pickling magnate Henry Scott; the combative priest Alexander Crummell; and John Jay II, the grandson of the first chief justice of the Supreme Court and an ardent abolitionist, who helped secure acceptance of St. Philip's.

 Download Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in A ...pdf

 Read Online Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in ...pdf

Download and Read Free Online Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) Craig D. Townsend

From reader reviews:

Jacqueline Campbell:

Here thing why that Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) are different and reputable to be yours. First of all examining a book is good nevertheless it depends in the content than it which is the content is as delicious as food or not. Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) giving you information deeper and different ways, you can find any book out there but there is no publication that similar with Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture). It gives you thrill studying journey, its open up your own eyes about the thing that happened in the world which is maybe can be happened around you. It is possible to bring everywhere like in park, café, or even in your way home by train. For anyone who is having difficulties in bringing the imprinted book maybe the form of Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) in e-book can be your choice.

Katrina Varga:

Now a day those who Living in the era where everything reachable by match the internet and the resources within it can be true or not require people to be aware of each facts they get. How individuals to be smart in acquiring any information nowadays? Of course the correct answer is reading a book. Examining a book can help persons out of this uncertainty Information mainly this Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) book since this book offers you rich data and knowledge. Of course the data in this book hundred pct guarantees there is no doubt in it you probably know this.

Philip Kirkpatrick:

Hey guys, do you really wants to finds a new book to read? May be the book with the headline Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) suitable to you? Typically the book was written by renowned writer in this era. The book untitled Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture)is the main one of several books which everyone read now. That book was inspired a lot of people in the world. When you read this book you will enter the new way of measuring that you ever know ahead of. The author explained their concept in the simple way, thus all of people can easily to be aware of the core of this book. This book will give you a great deal of information about this world now. In order to see the represented of the world on this book.

Tracey Cook:

Some people said that they feel uninterested when they reading a book. They are directly felt that when they get a half portions of the book. You can choose typically the book Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) to make your own reading is interesting. Your own personal skill of reading proficiency is developing when you just like reading. Try to choose straightforward book to make you enjoy to see it and mingle the impression about book and reading especially. It is to be very first opinion for you to like to start a book and study it. Beside that the book Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) can to be your friend when you're sense alone and confuse in what must you're doing of the time.

Download and Read Online Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) Craig D. Townsend #9LAGZUFXE3T

Read Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) by Craig D. Townsend for online ebook

Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) by Craig D. Townsend Free PDF d0wnl0ad, audio books, books to read, good books to read, cheap books, good books, online books, books online, book reviews epub, read books online, books to read online, online library, greatbooks to read, PDF best books to read, top books to read Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) by Craig D. Townsend books to read online.

Online Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) by Craig D. Townsend ebook PDF download

Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) by Craig D. Townsend Doc

Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) by Craig D. Townsend Mobipocket

Faith in Their Own Color: Black Episcopalians in Antebellum New York City (Religion and American Culture) by Craig D. Townsend EPub