The Intersection of Race, Class, and Gender in Multicultural Counseling Donald B. Pope-Davis, Hardin L. K. Coleman

Featuring an outstanding group of the leading theorists and researchers from the fields of multicultural psychology and counseling, this book begins with chapters on how the interplay of such variables of class, gender, and race interact in the development of an individual in a pluralistic society. It then presents theories on how to integrate issues of class, gender and race into counseling theory.
