From being disowned and ripped from her family, can love stand a chance for Onika Renee Brooks?

Onika has always had a tough life. Growing up with an abusive father was nothing but heartache and pain. Growing up without a mother and being lied to turned her cold hearted and standoffish. Love and family have failed her so she's not looking for either. Onika trusted no one and had a hard time letting people in until she met her King; Rapper Messiah.

From the jump Messiah knew Onika would be his Queen, he just needed to break down the walls that she built. Love was a nonexistent factor in Onika's childhood and adulthood, so Onika's focus was proving everyone who told her she would amount to anything wrong. Once her King breaks her down, the magic starts from the bedroom to the studio. Messiah is ready to give his Queen the world as she takes on his throne. It seems like when these two find love, society tries to tear them down from disappointment..
