I Will Praise You in the Storm: The Story of Stephen and Holly Deaube, a Journey of Faith Danny L. Deaube

This book covers a period from 1966 to 2008. It is an account of the lives of Stephen and Holly Deaube and their family, beginning at birth and ending in glory. Each was born with the same rare but fatal liver disease. Honest and sometimes graphic, it deals with the everyday joys, heartaches, and struggles that accompany children with liver disease. The landscape is constantly changing, covering a large spectrum of emotions. This story describes in detail the trials and struggles as they occurred, with an honest assessment of their thoughts as they responded to pain, suffering, and death. The book chronicles a journey of faith, beginning from infancy to its final conclusion in God's sovereign will.
