Chop Suey (Top Ramen) (Volume 2) Matthew Gilman

Life has calmed down for Vance. Thinking his past is behind him with his new life, he is now the Co-owner of a restaurant and taking things slow with his Girlfriend. Vance's life is turned upside down again when two people walk in the door wearing mask and carrying guns. Old instincts kick into gear and Vance finds himself at the opposite end of a contract put on him. While he tries to stay several steps ahead of the killers sent after him he also works to keep his relationship stable and the business secure. Can Vance keep things going while bullets fly and blood is spilled? Or, is his life just a big messy pile of Chop Suey?
