Mother's Day: A Short Story Renée Knight

Staying with her parents at Beauwater Manor, a luxury hotel in the English countryside, is the happiest memory of Laura's young life so far. She's excited at the prospect of returning to the hotel a few years later, but in this riveting short story by Renée Knight, author of Disclaimer—a remarkable debut novel of psychological suspense hailed by the New York Times as “outstandingly clever and twisty”—Laura will discover that even though some things about Beauwater Manor are familiar, others are very, very different from what she remembers....
