Stand-in mother...

When Bronte Lawrence reads a letter from a little girl claiming to be her daughter, she knows there has been a mistake. There has—Lucy Fitzpatrick's letter has reached the wrong Lawrence sister!

Her career-minded sister might not have wanted her child, but Bronte is ecstatic at the thought of meeting a niece she'd never known existed. Only, Bronte looks practically identical to her sister...and James Fitzpatrick mistakes her for the mother of his child!

Bronte finds it all too tempting to slip into the role—and it isn't just for Lucy. Fitz is tall, dark and handsome, and he's a great dad—a compelling combination. But what will happen when Lucy and Fitz discover that Bronte isn't quite who she seems?
