Los días de Birmania (Spanish Edition) George Orwell

Una novela de intrigas en la Birmania británica de la mano de un grande de las letras inglesas.

El protagonista de Los días de Birmania, el señor Flory, es el representante de una empresa maderera relegado a una remota provincia. Su apertura de miras hacia los nativos lo acerca al doctor Veraswami, quien tras caer en desgracia ante U Po Kyin, el poderoso y corrupto submagistrado local, necesita su patrocinio para formar parte del club social de Kyauktada, hasta ahora un reducto de los blancos.

Por otra parte, la llegada de Elizabeth Lackersteen, una joven encantadora y caprichosa, provocará casi literalmente un terremoto en la pequeña comunidad.

George Orwell nació en la India en 1903, pero con solo un año de edad se trasladó con su madre y sus hermanos a Inglaterra. No volvió al continente asiático hasta cumplir los diecinueve años, para formar parte de la policía colonial de Birmania. Esta novela -la primera del genial escritor- es el fruto de aquellos años.

La crítica dijo...

«Una novela redonda, apasionante y de una madurez asombrosa.»

Soledad Puértolas
