Third in this series, A Home as Wide as the Earth continues the themes of belonging, wandering, and faith present in Rachel Devenish Ford's blog, Journey Mama. In A Home as Wide as the Earth, Rachel travels on trains, buses, and rickshaws with her husband and children, journeying from the U.S. to India, Nepal, and Thailand, encountering God in the midst of both community and loneliness. Rachel's writing is warm and honest, sparkling and clear. She beautifully captures the small ordinary things that make up our days and lives. Candid and funny, spiritual and wise, this third collection of posts from the Journey Mama blog will comfort and inspire.
